

THE CULTIVIST.

Upstate New York Art Escapes

04 Jul 2025

Nicole Cherubini: 'The Motherlode'. Photo: courtesy of September Gallery.

Afternoon: drive 12 minutes to Hudson to visit SEPTEMBER Gallery, located at Basilica Hudson. This summer, the gallery presents THE MOTHERLODE by Nicole Cherubini (until 3 August) which spans two decades of her career. The show responds to the gallery's industrial architecture while integrating three core aspects of Cherubini's practice: sculpture, photography and performance. Collaboration is key to Cherubini's work, and here it emerges through her partnerships with choreographers, her reinterpretation of photographic archives, and her conversations with feminist thinkers and makers. Throughout, she continues her signature exploration of "Baroque Minimalism," juxtaposing ornate textures with spare forms. Her work challenges class and cultural hierarchies, embracing a multi-aesthetic, anti-hierarchical ethos.